WASHINGTON SENTINEL.

I PROPOSE to publish in the city of Washing too, in September. a political newspaper, under the name of the Washington Sentinet.

In doing so it is proper I should make known the principles it will maintain and the policy it will advocate.

It will support cordially and carnestly the principles of the Democratic Republican party of the United States. It does not propose to be the organ of any department of the Government, except is so har as an independent maintenance of the doctrines of that party may represent its opinions and express its views.

It will not be ambitious to commend itself to the people by a blind flattery of their rulers. It will such as may conflict with them, from whatever quarter they may come. It will seek to be (and it will endeavor to deserve the title) the organ of the Democratic party of the United States.

The Sentinel will maintain, as a fundamental ruth of that great party, that the States formed the Union between them by the ratification of the Constitution as a compact; by which also they precified in it, with an explicit reservation of all others to the States, or to their seearate governments. The exercise of any powers beyond those thus delegated is therefore an usurpation of the reserved authority of the States by the agent of their own creation.

The Sentinel will uphold and defend the Union upon the basis of the rights of the States—under the states are the same of the states of the States—under the basis of the rights of the States—under the same of the states of the States—under the same of the states of the States—under the same of the same the same of the same the same of the reserved authority of the States—under the same of the same the same the same the same the same thas a same the same the same the same the same the same the same t

The Sentinel will uphold and defend the Union upon the basis of the rights of the States—under the Constitution—and thus by sedulously guarding the latter it will the more effectually strengthen and perpetuate the former.

With regard to the exercise of the powers of the Federal Government, the Sentinel will take as the principles of its action that Congress shall exercise no power which has not been delegated by the Constitution, according to a strict and fair interpretation of its language and spirit; and that it shall not seek to attain indirectly an object through the exercise of constitutional power, for the direct attainment of which it has no delegation of power. In other words, all powers exercised must be clearly granted, and all granted powers must be used for no purpose except such as is clearly intended by the Constitution.

In respect to the internal administration of the Government the Sentinel will sustain the settled policy of the Demogratic party. It will labor to

In respect to the internal administration of the Government the Sentinel will sustain the settled policy of the Democratic party. It will labor to inculcate this cardinal doctrine of Democratic internal policy—that this Government will best promote the freedom and prosperity of the people of the States by being less ambitious to exercise power and more anxious to preserve liberty; and by leaving to the individual States the management of all their domestic concerns—while it contents itself with guarding the Confederacy from external violence, and directing the foreign policy of the country to the promotion of the common interests and defence of the common rights and honor of the States composing it.

of the States composing it.

The Sentinel will advocate such a progressive oreign policy as will suit itself to the exigencies and correspond with the expanding interests of the country. That policy should be energetic and decided; but should temper firmness with liberality, and make its highest ends consist with the strictest principles of justice. The real interests of the country more such consists. of the country upon each occasion demanding at-tention will be its guide in the course the Sentine.

the national policy of the world in this age is clearged on delivery. The postcontent was a second demanding atthe national policy of the world in this age is casentially aggressive. In the growing sense of weakness of some of the nations of the Old World and the ambitious restlessness of obsers, a common motive to colonial extension has developed itself.

Our settled determination to repel interference from abroad with our own domestic concerns will prompt us to avoid it in the affairs of other countries, anless by their foreign or colonial policy our peace should be, threatened, our security endangereted, or our interests invaded. For when the or colonial policy we fire and the pathway of our colonial policy our peace should be threatened, our security endangereted, or our interests invaded. For when the or colonial policy we fire and the pathway of our colonial policy of the security of the or colonial policy we have a security endangereted, or our interests invaded. For when the resisted by remonstrance, and if need be by war.

Our foreign policy should indeed be defensive but to be properly aggressize. Our Administration should be vigilant, watchful, and energetic. The world is fail of important movements, commercial and political, deeply concerning American trade and foreign policy. It is time we had an American and ordinal property of the sease of the conditions of the world. Our agricultural productions are more varied and more essential to civilized life and to human progress—our mineral and ceaned of the world. Our agricultural productions are more varied and more essential to civilized life and to human progress—our mineral and ceaned the world. Our agricultural productions are more varied and more essential to civilized life and to human progress—our mineral and ceaned to the world. Our agricultural productions are more varied and more essential to civilized life and to human progress—our mineral and ceaned to the world as wall as its yet hidden wealth is at our feet. E r of its destiny.

The Sentinel will, therefore, advocate a bold and carnest foreign policy, such as the condition of the country demands, but it will advocate it under the country demands, but it will advocate it under the flag of the country—nowhere else. Its foreign policy must be consistent with the spotless honor and unimpeachable good faith of the country. To be respectable at home and abroad, and to be great in the cas of the world, it must ask for nothing but what is right and submit to nothing that is wrong. It must be liberal and magnanimous to the rights of others, and firm and immovable in insisting on its own. It must, in fine, be true to its own interests, rights, and honor—it cannot then be false to ests, rights, and honor-it cannot then be false to cats, rights, and nonor—it cannot then be false to those of other nations.

Such, then, is the chart by which we shall be guided. Independent and free, we shall endeavor to be honest and truthful. The true friends of Democratic principles, we shall cordially support and defend. Its enemies in the field or in ambush we shall oppose, and on all proper occasions denounce.

we shall oppose, and on all proper occasions denounce.

To our future brethren of the press we extend the hand of friendly greeting. The Sentinel is the rival of no press of its own party—the personal enemy of none of the other.

The present Democratic Administration has our best wishes for its success in the establiahment of the great principles upon which it came into power; and in its honest labors to attain such an end it will find the Sentinel its friend and coadjutor.

PROPOSALS FOR STATIONERY.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

WASHINGTON, June 23, 1862.

IN CONSEQUENCE of the informalities in the proposals received at this Department, pursuant to the notice of the 14th ultimo, and in order to effect the object designed by the 17th section of the act of Congress approved the 26th of August, 1842, it becomes necessary to extend the time for receiving proposals.

Notice is therefore hereby given that scaled proposals for furnishing the stationery which may be required for the use of this Department and its several bureaus, during the fiscal year ending the 30th June, 1854, will be received at this Department until 3 o'clock p. m., on Saturday, the 13th day of August next, when the bids will be opened in presence of such of the bidders as may be present.

nials of ability to fulfil a contract will not be considered.

The bidder to whom the award may be made will be required to enter into contract within thirty days after being notified of the acceptance of his offer.

All the articles must be of the very best quality, samples of which must accompany the bids, and the Department reserves the right to retain such samples and pay for the same at the prices stated in the offer, or to return them at its option.

Each proposal must be signed by the individual or firm making it, and must specify a price, and but one price, for each and every article named in the schedule. Should articles be required not enumerated, they are to be furnished at the lowest market prices, according to quality. Blank forms enumerated, they are to be jurnished at the lowest market prices, according to quality. Blank forms for proposals will be furnished at the Department to persons applying for them; and as, without uniformity therein, the Department would find it difficult to make a decision, none will be taken into consideration unless substantially agreeing therewith

to Wheeling, and connecting there with the large, new, and splendid Steamers of the Union Line on the Ohio, and the Stages to Zanesville, &c. THIS EXPEDITIOUS LINE being now tho Zanesville, &c.

This expeditious line being now thoroughly completed, by the late finishing of the Great Board Tree Tunnel, and the road being in excellent order, the carnest attention of travellers is confidently directed to its superior advantages and low fares. The scenery upon this road is of the most stupendous and attractive character.

The Express Mail Train leaves Baltimore daily at 7 p. m., and runs directly through to Wheeling, (380 miles) in 18 or 19 hours, including all stoppages, arriving there at 2 or 3 p. m. next day; or, passengers leaving Baltimore at 8 a. m. may lay over for lodging in Cumberland, (179 miles.) and proceed thence to Wheeling in the morning.

To connect with these trains, the cars leave Washington at 6 a. m. and 5 p. m. daily, meeting the cars from Baltimore at the Washington Junction, (better known as the Relay House,) 9 miles from Baltimore.

At Wheeling the seven unrivalled steamers of the Union Line, which have just been completed for this route, form a daily connexion with the cars, and convey passengers down the Ohio to Cincinnati and Louisville, where the stages for Nashville, &c., or the St. Louis and New Orleans packets may be taken by those going further on.

Passengers for Columbus (or who prefer the land route to Cincinnati) and other parts of Ohio and the West may also proceed direct from Wheeling in the Ohio Stage Company's excellent coaches over the best part of the National Road to Zanesville, &c., and thence by railroad.

Passengers for Wellsville and Cleveland by steamboat and railroad will also find this a most agreeable route, there being a regular and speedy connexion at Wheeling to and from those places.

(37-Baggage checked through from Washington to Wheeling, and no charge for transfer of passengers or baggage.

Fare by through ticket (with the right to lie over anwhere on the route) from Washington to wheeling, and no charge for transfer of passengers or baggage.
